TO THE ELECTORS OF MARS-

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,-

At the request of a large number of Electors I have consented to be a candidate for the Marsden Seat at the next general election.

Before addressing you in the various centres I wish to place before you a fow of the leading Planks of my political Platform for your serious consideration.

I am in favour of the reconstruction of the present Government, one-half of the members of the Cabinet to be selected from the North Island. I approve of moderate borrowing for the construction of railways and roading Crown lands; the vigorous prosecution of railway extension from Kaipara Flats to Maungaturoto; the completion of the railway from Hukerenui to Kawakawa ard its further extension from thence to Pakaraka and Kaikohe on to Hokianga Harbour.

The maintenance of the optional freehold tenure of all Crown lands, the homestead system to be applied to the second-class lands in the Northern Counties.

The reform of the ballot system, so as to stop the duplication of applications for sections and the prevention of Liberal allowance to the volunteer forces, and compulsory service for at least two years.

The acquisition of all the surplus native lands North of Auckland by the State and the disposal of them on the optional system, with right of freehold; liberal assistance to local bodies, by way of loan, to enable them to metal and maintain existing roads.

The introduction and passing of a School teacher's Superannuation Bill, founded on sourd financial principles; and strict economy in the administration of all Departments of the State. I hope to be able to visit every centre in the Electorate previous to the Election to place my views more fully before you. -I am, Ladies and Gentle-

Yours faithfully, R. THOMPSON.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Young lambs are making their appearance rapidly, and we understand the average is good.

A stray red and white steer has been running on Mr Bowman's property at Dome Valley for the past three months.

Mr J. M. King has been appointed the Marsden Licensing Committee and leaves at an early date to sit at the Court at Whangarei.

We understand the Waipu settlers and the Settlers Steamship Co. have come to an agreement re cost of fares, etc., between Waipu and Auckland. Mr R. Ross sold at the Loan and Mercantile Agency Co.'s sale on Wednesday last, 94 head of steers at an average of £6 2s a head. These included two beef steers at £9 17s 6d

Overheard in the street this week when a local resident of German extraction was holding an argument, and our only wit coming along exclaimed, "Dinna fash yersel, Peter," who answered, "Vat you mein, I vas vash meinself dis morning. Ugh!"

The Kapanui took up her running again, after installing a new tail shaft, on Monday last. The Gael was the relieving boat, and Capt. Southgate had to run the gauntlet of a deal of good humoured banter through being on the bridge of the one-time opposition steamer.

An ewe belonging to Mr Alfred Woodcock, jun., Ahuroa, has given birth to a lamb having six legs. The extra pair being placed behind the fore leg on one side. The freak was dead when found and had never walked, though all the legs seemed to be perfectly developed.

At the evening service at St Columbas on Sunday last the singing of the choir was greatly appreciated by all, and it is seldom we have such a splendid choir attending. We understand several new voices are joining and we may anticipate a repitition of the treat of Sunday evening.

The Red Funnel magazine has taken on throughout the length and breadth of the colony tremendously. Those desirous of securing this magnificent magazine should send their order into the Times office, Warkworth, at once. The magazine is issued at the low price of sixpence and abounds with excellent articles.

Last week there was on view in Mr Thos. Walker's shop the plans of the Presbyterian Manse to be erected immediately. The building will be a two-storeyed house containing eight rooms and a bathroom, and from the plans, which are in keeping with the church, the building will be quite an acquisition to Warkworth.

Elsewhere the Auckland Farmers Union advertise a clearing sale of Mr T. C. Sainsbury's stock, implements, harness, piano, furniture, garden tools, etc., etc. The sale is an unreserved one and no doubt from its importance there will be a large attendance of buy-Flats customers that his shop there will be open every day except sale starts at 12 o'clock sharp on Tuesday, 18 in inst.

There is a splendid display of most ap-to-date post cards at the Times office Warkwortĥ.

The Rev. Latter will hold divine waka 3 p.m. on Sunday.

The Auckland Farmers' Union's stock sales for September show exceptionally heavy entries. Puhoi is again included and a sale will be held at the

On Thursday evening last the s.s. Kapanui was detained over two hours on the run from Auckland owing to an exceptionally heavy fog prevailing in The Rev. Latter holds divine service at Warkworth at 3 p.m. on Sunday

10th. Evensong and H.C., and services with Holy Communion at Kaipara Flats at 11 a.m., and Matakana Mr A. G. Fallwell departed on Friday morning to attend to farm duties in the Tokatoka, where his wife was fortunate enough to draw a selection.

During his absence Dr. McCredie will attend to prescriptions. We hear that the Matakana folk have been approached on liberal terms to have a boat running in that trade on a guarantee of 10 years' support, at the end of that period the boat becomes the property of the settlers. Whew! Next please!

General satisfaction will be expressed throughout the world that Japan and Russia have come to an amicable agreement with regard to peace. The announcement was received with great jubilations everywhere. To President Roosevelt is ascribed the glory in arranging the conference.

The Voucher question has fizzled out, the auditor-general stating no such voucher existed, and that during Capt. Seddon's employment in the public service, March 31, 1903, to June 30, 1905, no voucher was ever issued or passed through the Treasury for a payment to him for the organisation or reorganisation of defence stores.

authorities of the Dunning-cum-Mc-We hear on good authority that Mr W. H. Cox of Dome Hills has sold his Gregor S.S. Company, when Messrs Morrison and Co. will promulgate herd of Angora goats to a southern gentleman. The herd comprises the the unparalelled advantages which will best bred animals in the colony. We accrue to all confiding people who may trust to hear of Mr Cox replacing his be enticed into buying shares in the local company. But judging by the consensus of assertion at Leigh and herd as there is a splendid future before this industry and it is a pity farmers in the north do not more readily recognise their value.

We regret to learn that Kaipara Flats is losing one of the oldest families of their district in Mr and Mrs T. C. Sainsbury and family of Park Farm. Mr and Mrs Sainsbury came there many years ago and have reared their family We wish them health and prosperity in their new home wherever they may decide to cast their lot. We understand a Mr Zakelin has bought this valuable property. The loss of Mrs Sainsbury we personally more especially regret as she has been since the inception of the paper one of our most valuable and reliable correspondents, and we take this opportunity of tendering our most sincere thanks for her valuable services.

For a number of years farmers have had to contend with lung worm, round the Wade to Waipu during each week; worm, tape worm, etc., in sheep and and if printed and vocal words go for lambs, and diarrhoea, scours, etc., in calves and the loss through these pests have often been severe. To Mr A. G. Fallwell, chemist, Warkworth, has fallen the lot to discover an absolute ing in the company with the public cure. At present Mr Fallwell has restricted his investigations to supplying samples to farmers free of charge and those who have tried this drench speak in glowing terms of its effectiveness The animals are locked in the stockyard over night, as the drench must be given on an empty stomach, and two tablespoonfuls administered to each (lambs half the dose). One farmer who tried it on his sheep says the stockyard was literally strewn with worms n the morning and since the dosing the sheep have fattened at a marvellous rate. Mr Fallwell still has a supply of samples on hand and those desirous of testing its efficaciousness should apply for a bottle at once. This Anastatic Drench promises to be the medium

Waitemata.

After very considerable wire-pulling within the inner circle of the Liberal and Labour Federation, Mr Cecil Clinkard has been appointed the Government candidate for the Waitemata seat. This is rough on Mr Gerald Peacocke, who has made sacrifices for the party, having unsuccessfully contested several seats where the odds were heavily against him. Little seems to be known of Mr Clinkard. except that he was a settler in the back country, and that he has been actively working the back districts of the electorate lately. So far as the Devonport, Northcote, and Birkenhead parts of the district are concerned, there is little doubt that Mr Peacocke would have carried much more support than Mr Clinkard, and for this reason it is questionable whether the selection is in the best interests of the party. In any case, it appears anomalous under our democratic system of government that a score or two voters calling themselves the Liberal and Labour Federation should have the right to choose a party candidate for the whole electorate, compelling a man who finds greater favour in the eyes of the majority of the electors on that particular side to stand down. ticket discount bait dangled in front of This may be the law according to the Liberal and Labour Federation, and thin to find favour with the discerning Mr Peacocke may acquiesce in it, but it does not seem consistent with the democratic principle of "equal right and equal opportunity." - Observer.

THE WEATHER. The glorious fine weather is making the winter months quite pleasant roads almost equal to summer, spring growth showing all around and the warmth of the mid-day sun one hardly realises it is winter time. Prospects of orchardists are looking fair by the show of buds on the trees. Winter spraying has pretty well come to an Vermerite is almost universally used here now for winter spraying. The output of last season's fruit will come to a final next week; growers seem well satisfied with the season's proceeds and are preparing for extending orchard lands.

The Whakapirau Hockey Club visited Port Albert last Saturday to play off the third game for the season with the local club. Both clubs had evidently practised up their members as play was faster and improved very much in other points on previous matches. No score was gained by either side during the first spell, and the only goal scored off second spell was by an unfortunate mis-hit by a Port Albert player (while defending close up to line) knocked the ball over immediately raising the freights and the line in favour of her opponents. Hard luck was on both sides, but the the 25th inst. a well attended meeting it a good game for the spectators, of evenness of powers of both teams made whom over one hundred attended to meet the Steamship Co.'s directors at their healthy pastime sport.
