LOCAL AND GENERAL

No overdue accounts should be allowed to run into the new year.

It is contemplated to hold another Dome Valley Moonlight Fair about March:

Kawau and all mainland coastal resorts in our district are crowded with visitors.

Mr Robson, who recently sold his farm at Warkworth, has purchased Mrs O. Wedding's place at Waiwhiu.

Adam Dawson's launch had a full complement of passengers for Kawau on Boxing Day.

Whangateau folks will provide a pleasant day for all who turn up at that pretty spot on New Year's Day. Particulars are advertised.

The inspector of the Health Dept. was in town last week. In addition to inspecting premises he took samples of food and weighed others.

The local Post Office business was very heavy this Christmas. Letters, Christmas cards, and parcels came forward in bulky consignments.

The "R. and O. Times" presents compliments and thanks to Own Correspondents everywhere. May they continue to carry their district banners with credit, as in the past.

Mr Harry Webber is one of those who have received direct acknowledgment from a soldier at the front of a contribution of tobacco sent through the Overseas Clnb.

This is a good time to commence subscribing to the "R. and O. Times " Neighbors who do not at present subscribe might be favored with a hintto general advantage.

The Christmas trade at the stores of the district was up to the average. This is the most fortunate and most generally prosperous part of the British Empire at the present time. We should all be grateful.

Several horses have died suddenly of late. Mr T. A. Gubb lost two within a fortnight, and Mr Henry Southgate lost the fine carthorse for which he was offered about £40 some time ago.

The People's Picture Co. screened a good programme on Saturday last before a fair audience. On Saturday next, a fine varied programme will be shown, the star being entitled "The Battle."

It appears that we are to lose another of our most valued settlers. Mr J. A. Clinch, who is ever ready to help in any movement for public benefit, has disposed of his fruit farm, and the usual clearing sale is announced.

On Wednesday evening last the senior boys of Christ Church Sunday school gave the Vicar a genuine surprise. They waited upon him with refreshments and a presentation (a gold-mounted pipe.) Fred Goertz voiced the sentiments of the boys, and the Vicar expressed his appreciation in a practical manner by at once lighting up.

Mrs Goatley, sen., has received word from the Sandbag Committee, Auck-land, that basic slag bags will be thankfully received to ship to the from the way of the san abundance front for use as sandbags. She has already despatched a number, and is sure that settlers generally will do the same now that they know. There are thousands of the bags lying about in this district. The address to send them to is —Sandbag Committee, Y.M.C.A., Auckland. They are carried from here free of freight. We have to acknowledge a number of kindly messages of goodwill to-wards the "R. and O. Times" and its staff by district correspondents and subscribers. The friendly wishes are heartily reciprecated. The "R. and O. Times" has no hatchet for anyone. It wishes all residents of the district--yes; whether subscribers or not-a Heppy and Prosperous New Year. May 1916 become brighter as it groas. May 1910 become originer as it grows. All in favor will say Aye, and to the contrary (if any) No. Ladies and gentlemen, the motion is carried unanimously.

A FINE EFFORT.

MANCAWAI, TARA, AND TE ARAI DIS-TRICTS.

(A Correspondent.)

This is a rather belated account of the effort which these districts made on behalf of the Wounded Soldiers Fund. the proceeds being devoted to the Queen of the North.

Mangawai was en fete on Thursday Nov. 19th. Any stranger visiting the township would recognise at once, by the flags flying and the traps of all descriptions converging at one point, that something important was taking place. And this was so. A great effort was being made to assist the Queen of the North's candidature. It would be invidious to mention the names of those who assisted : all did their utmost, and did it well.

In the paddock were to be found lollie and flower stalls, drapery and produce stalls, refreshment and strawberry and cream booths, hoop-la, shooting gallery, gipsy tent, fancy dress football match, hidden treasure, love in a tub, &c.

To augment the total there was a sale of cattle, horses, &c., which had been given; subscriptions had also been handed in.

In the evening a concert was held in the hall, Messrs McIlwain, T. Ryan, and Misses Tessie Bartlett (Auckland), McMillan, Sntherland, M'Leod, Mayhead, and McLean contributing items, all of which were encored. This was followed by a dance.

When the total amount was announced it surprised all, and the committee who had the matter in hand felt well repaid. The following are the amounts raised :-

		£	8	đ
Subscription to refr	$\mathbf{eshment}$
fund		6	9	6
Donations .	1	18	1	9
Sale of Tickets .		28	16	3
Proceeds of stalls an	d games	59	15	7
Entries for sports .		0	10	10
Sale of cattle, &c	1	24	18	0
	£3	38	11	11
To expenses	••	5	13	1
Net proceeds	£8	332	18	10

Will residents of Mangawai and neighborhood who are not at present subscribers to the "R. and O. Times" please note that if they send in now they may have the benefit of the special subscription concession. For a little while longer 8s instead of 10s will be accepted for subscriptions paid strictly in advance.]

THE BETTER ROADS MOVE-MENT.

The Committee of the Better Roads movement is at work, preparing data, and generally arranging for a fair test. of the great question.

It is not the Committee's duty to influence anyone-it is their right, however, as individuals, to exercise their opinions as they think fit. They are arranging for information that will show what a good road to Kaipara Flats would cost each ratepayer in the loan area. Then the ratepayer will decide whether a real highway is worth that much to him.

The Committee will also inquire whether the loan for the road can be obtained if sanctioned.

There is an abundance of feed this season, and all hands are milking.

TENNIS.

The Tennis Club has renovated the court, and members are putting in a good bit of practice. They are likely to play a match with the Tauhoa Club shortly.

APPENDICITIS,

Mr A. Hudson, who has been under an operation for appendicitis, is just about himself again.
