LOCAL AID FOR LOCAL SOLDIERS.

Months ago the present writer suggested that the returned sick and wounded soldiers belonging to the country would, as a rule, get better treatment if their cases were considered by country Committees. The matter was brought before the Rodney Chamber of Commerce, and that body wrote to the Chairman of the Auckland Patriotic Funds Committee suggesting that the Chamber (with the Chairman of the Rodney County Council and the Chairman of the Warkworth Town Board Board added) should be regarded as a committee to deal with all cases of sick and wounded soldiers in the County of Rodney. The Auckland body refused the request. Certain information came to hand later, and the request was repeated, and is now promised consideration at the annual meeting of the Auckland Committee.

Meantime we hear of a case in the County which, if report speak true, had but scant consideration at the hands of the busy men of Auckland. "Oh," said their Chairman, "you belong to the country, don't you?" "Yes." "Oh, well, you are alright; you won't need anything." We cannot vouch for the accuracy of this, but that is what is in circulation. We hope the soldier concerned will send us all the facts, so that the demand for a local committee to give due attention to the needs of local soldiers may be strengthened.

Every man who does business of any kind should advertise. We quote exceptionally easy rates for standing advertisements, bringing them within the reach of anyone and everyone. No matter what your line may be, get a quote. More publicity means more business and more profit. Or are you irremediably afflicted with "Tahoaism?"

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The next sale of the Loan and Mercantile is listed for Friday, July 14.

Mr Warner left Warkworth last week to take up his residence in the city.

All lines of beef and mutton sold high at the last Westfield sale. Prices still have an upward tendency.

Private Sadler, of Whangateau, who had been in the district on final leave, returned to camp per Hauti on Thursday last.

Specialist J. B. Perry who was home on leave, has been drafted in with the 16th Reinforcements, so he hopes to be home again on Final Leave.

The lads of the local draft of the Eighteenth Reinforcements left on Saturday morning. They had free accommodation in Auckland until Tuesday, when they departed with the other troops for Trentham.

In connection with the list of cash donations to the North Auckland Aeroplane Fund, Mr Carran requests us to rectify an omission in his copy. The name of Mr Holliday, who contributed two guineas, should have been included.

Mr K. Glass left for Hokianga, via Auckland, on Monday last. On Sunday evening last at the Methodist Church he was presented with a travelling bag in recognition of his services as organist and otherwise. "Ken" is well spoken of, and everybody wishes him well in his new field.

THE WAR.

LATEST ENLISTMENTS.

Among the latest enlistments are the following associated with this district:—

Worker, C. N., Wellsford.
Young, P. W., Tawharanui.

18 TH REINFORCEMENTS' SOCIAL.

The local draft of the Eighteenth Reinforcements, following the example of the Seventeenth, and taking advantage of the instalment left on the hire of the Hall, as previously reported, held a social at Warkworth on Thursday night last, to mark their departure for the training camp. They had the support of friends, and the hearty co-operation of the ladies, who provided the supper. Townspeople were, as before, guests of the recruits, but it seems likely that that curious state of affairs will have no further repetition.

Owing to the scant notice, the inclement weather, and other causes, the attendance was not so large as on the occasion of the Seventeenth's Social, but the gathering was a fair one. All enjoyed themselves, and made their presence mark their esteem of those going to fight the battles of all, and their intelligent perception of the gravity of the national crisis, unprecedented, as it is, in the history of the world.

Speeches were delivered by Mr Shannon and Mr Roydhouse, at the request of members of the draft. Mrs T. Warin, on behalf of the Warkworth Red Cross League, presented each recruit with a parcel of comforts. Very hearty cheers were given for the lads, who responded with cheers for the ladies of the Red Cross League.

Songs were rendered by Messrs Moffat, Gill and Button. Mrs and Miss Pulham, Miss Jackson, Mrs McMahon, Mr S. Stringer, and Mr K. Glass played accompaniments and selections.

Dancing was continued at short intervals until after midnight.

A REPROACH REMOVED.

At the social by the local draft of the Seventeenth Reinforcements on Thursday evening last the opportunity was availed of to remove the stigma which has rested upon this town in respect of the farewelling of soldiers and the reception of sick and wounded. The war is nearly two years old, so it was almost time.

Acting upon the suggestion of Mr Moore, and aided by the activities of others, a good working Committee was enrolled. The names were submitted to the audience, who elected them by acclamation. This committee will attend to all future departures and arrivals, looking, of course, to the townsmen, people for hearty and practical co-operation. The names are as follows:— Messrs, Purchase, S. Williams, Flay, C. Harding, Shannon, and Moore; and Mesdames T. Warin and Roose; and Miss Jones.

DEATH OF PRIVATE WOODCOCK.

The "Northern Advocate," Whangarei, reports:—"The funeral took place on Monday, 19th June, of Pte. Percy Thomas Woodcock, of Kaipara Flats. Private Woodcock was one of the first among the New Zealand boys to answer the call to the Colours when war was declared. Prior to his enlistment he met with an accident from a fall off a horse. He was accepted however, and completed his training satisfactorily. He sailed with the early contingents and awaited in Egypt the call to action. While training in Egypt his old trouble, owing to the accident, caused stiffness in the limb, and he was invalided home. He recovered all right, and re-entered Trentham for training a second time. Owing, however, to his accident, he was not sent to the front, but discharged as medically disqualified. He was taken ill, with cold, a few weeks ago, and died in the Whangarei hospital of pneumonia on Sunday. The funeral took place yesterday at Kamo. Among the mourners were his father, who resides in Auckland, and his two brothers. The younger of the two brothers attending the funeral on Monday is himself a soldier, honourably discharged. His name is Kenneth Woodcock, and he fought in the famous Gallipoli advance. He was in a valiant home with enteric.

The deceased was born in Warkworth in 1886. His father, Mr Henry Woodcock, who now resides in King Edward St., Dominion Road, Auckland, arrived in this district in 1865, so may fairly be described as one of the pioneers. His wife is the eldest daughter of the late John Southgate, and was the first white girl brought to reside in the upper part of the Mahurangi River, living where Wilson's Cement Co.'s Works are.

DISTRICT CONTRIBUTIONS.

Among recent acknowledgments in connection with the Mayor of Auckland's Fund for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers appear the following:—

Matakana Co-Op. Dairy Co. £20.
Port Albert Dairy Co. £9-19-8.
Warkworth Athletic Sports Club, £50.

DIRTY WORK, CALCULATED TO AID THE ENEMY.

The following letter has been received by the members of the Flaxmill Employees Union, Foxton:—

"Dear Comrade,—At the special mass meeting of the above union, held on Saturday last, June 10th, 1916, for the purpose of discussing conscription, the following resolution was carried:—

"That this meeting pledges itself by signature attached to forra provided, that it will, immediately go on strike the moment the Conscription Act is put into operation to enforce any man against his wish or conscience to join the forces, and that all Flax mills be circularised calling on members not present to give a similar understanding." Further, this meeting resolves to act upon any other suggestion that may be considered necessary to obstruct the Act.

Acting under instructions from the above meeting, Mr J. Thorn or myself will visit your place of employment on Monday, June 19th for the purpose of getting signatures to the above pledge.

Kindly notify the workers of our visit.—Yours faithfully,

"Percy T. Robinson, Secretary."

There is nothing so simple and effectual for colds in children as "NAZOL." One, two or three drops according to age on lump sugar should be given frequently during the day, and at night sprinkle "NAZOL" freely on the nightdress so that it may be inhaled during the night.
