FAREWELL.

As Mr and Mrs Wat. Darroch were leaving the district to take up their residence at Stanley Bay, Devonport, their many friends at Whangateau and Big Omaha invited them to the Domain on Saturday, April 18th, to spend a social time together. The afternoon was devoted to playing bowls and tennis. A five o'clock all adjourned to the hall where the ladies had provided a most bountiful tea which was done justice to. After tea Mr Whitaker, in a neat speech, expressed regret that Mr and Mrs Darroch were leaving where they had always been willing to help at all social gatherings, and on behalf of friends presented Mrs Darroch with a set of pyrex dishes, and Mr Darroch with a smokers' companion. Mr Darroch suitably responded. As the shades of evening were drawing in the greater number wended their way homewards but some bowling enthusiasts remained to play after dark with the assistance of the electric light of a motor car showing over the green.

"A Truce to this Unpleasantness."—D'Aubrey. Nothing is more inconvenient and unpleasant than an Autumn cough or cold. Occurring right at the commencement of the cold season, such complaints may lead to serious complications unless treated at once.

The ideal remedy, of course, is Baxter's Lung Preserver—the rich, warming, penetrative specific that is always to be relied upon. A dose in time may save trouble later on. Also a splendid tonic. Generous-sized bottle 2s 6d; family size 4s 6d. Chemists and stores. But be sure to get "Baxter's"!

Shootists who are ready for the opening of the season next Friday have an array of notices in another part of this issue which they should peruse, pointing out properties in which they are barred from shooting over.
